Privacy Policy

1. Privacy Clause

Protecting the privacy and security of our customers and website visitors is a fundamental responsibility of Skeyriss Securities LTD. Licensed by the International Business Company (IBC), with License Number 2025-00014, we are committed to ensuring that your personal and financial information remains secure at all times. This privacy policy outlines the measures Skeyriss takes to collect, use, and safeguard your information. By opening an account or using our website, you consent to the collection and use of your personal information in accordance with the terms of this policy. We are dedicated to maintaining the highest standards of privacy and security to foster trust and confidence in our services.

2. Personal Information Collection

We obtain your personal information directly from you or indirectly through your relationship with us. The relevant information we collect will be used as noted below:

- Confirm your identity
- Confirm your contact information
- Open your trading account
- Set up your trading account and password

The above mentioned and/or any other necessary information we collect, will allow us to provide you with the services and give you access to a personalized browsing experience, market products, services, offers, and other information that might be of interest to you.

Most of the information we collect directly and/or indirectly from you will include:

- Name
- Address
- Email address
- Phone number
- Date of Birth
- Any other contact information

All the information and/or identification information collected is necessary for us to provide you with the best possible experience and to comply with the relevant laws, rules, and regulations. We also collect personal background information when you open an account, including gender, date of birth, and employment status. Our regulators also require us to evaluate your trading experience, annual gross income, gross net worth, and affordable venture capital to assess your financial situation.

Any data and information provided to us are necessary for the opening of your account and to establish our business relationship.

We also collect your IP address, browser type, operating system, network provider, server clock, and transaction record. If you close an account, we will retain your information, but will only use it in compliance with regulatory requirements, as well as to contact you and provide the opportunity to re-open the account or participate in promotional activities.

3. Sharing Personal Information with Affiliates and Partners

Skyriss does not sell, license, lease, or disclose your personal information to affiliates, partners, or third parties without a valid reason. However, certain circumstances may require sharing your data, such as when it is essential for providing the requested products or services. For instance:

- If your personal information is required to provide you with the product or service you requested, or to provide you with the product or service through our affiliates.
- To improve the quality of our service, we may contract other companies to handle certain internal affairs, such as account processing, execution, customer service, customer satisfaction surveys, or other data collection related to our business.
- Skyriss reserves the right to provide your personal information to third parties when required by law to provide relevant information to regulators, law enforcement agencies, or other government agencies.

When you choose to engage with third-party services or advertisements via our platform, your personal information shared with those entities is no longer governed by this privacy policy. Skyriss encourages you to review the privacy policies of such third parties before sharing any personal data. We are not responsible for the actions or policies of external entities, but we remain committed to safeguarding the data under our control.

4. Security of Personal Information

Skyriss employs advanced network security technologies, systems, and protocols to ensure a secure trading environment for all users. Your personal, financial, and trading data are protected using encryption technologies and authentication measures. Upon account creation, you will receive a unique account number, username, and password. It is your responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of this information. Skyriss strongly advises against sharing your credentials with others to prevent unauthorized access.

Our website incorporates state-of-the-art encryption and e-business certification technologies to protect the integrity of online transactions and account applications. We continually monitor and update our security protocols to address emerging threats, ensuring that your information remains safe from potential breaches.

5. Storage of Personal Information and Retention Period

Skyriss retains your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected, including maintaining business relationships and complying with legal and regulatory requirements. After our relationship with you has ended, we continue to retain your information for a defined period to:

- Maintain business records for analysis and/or audit purposes.
- Meet our regulatory requirements.
- Comply with record retention requirements under applicable law.
- Defend or bring any existing or potential legal claims.
- Deal with any complaints regarding the services.

In cases where technical limitations prevent the complete deletion of data, Skyriiss implements robust measures to prevent further processing or misuse of the retained information. This approach ensures compliance with data protection standards while safeguarding your privacy.

6. Privacy Policy Changes and Exits

Skyriiss reserves the right to update this privacy policy to reflect changes in regulatory requirements, market conditions, or operational needs. When updates are made, the revised policy will be posted on our website, and you will be deemed to have accepted the changes by continuing to use our services. For transparency, we recommend that you periodically review this policy to stay informed about our privacy practices.

If you wish to opt out of specific data-sharing practices with non-affiliated third parties, you may notify us through the provided contact channels. Each account requires a separate opt-out request. Skyriiss is committed to addressing any privacy concerns promptly and effectively.

7. Legal Disclaimer

Skyriiss may disclose your personal information when required by law or when we believe such disclosure is necessary to protect our rights, comply with legal proceedings, or fulfill obligations to regulatory authorities. While we take extensive measures to safeguard your data, we are not liable for unauthorized use or breaches beyond our control. You are responsible for securing your account credentials and immediately reporting any suspicious activity. Skyriiss remains dedicated to upholding the integrity and security of your personal information.
